

2020-21 Candidates for the Eastmont School Community Council

Consistent with state law, voting for School Community Council must take place in person. Ballots will be available in the main office. Voting will open August 24th and close August 28th.

Ashley Barfuss

Ashely is the parent of two sixth grade Eastmont students. She's applied to be on the School Community Council because she believes parents should have a voice in their children's public education. Being an advocate for students and parents is an important job.

Jen Coccimiglio

I'm not quite sure how they got to be so old, but our family has already had two children graduate from Eastmont and our third will be starting as a 6th grade student this year.

For the past 11 years, my focus has been fixed solely on involvement at Park Lane Elementary, serving on both the PTA Board and the SCC.

Jennifer Crane

Jenn Crane is the parent of a 7th-grader and has been on PTA for the last three years. She applied to be on the SCC to gain a new perspective on the workings at Eastmont.

Rachel Dewyea

Rachel is the parent of an Eastmont 7th grade student. She would like to be on the school community council as she has worked in schools and as a social worker and most importantly am a parent. She wants to advocate for the students' social and emotional well being and find ways for our educators, parents and community members to work together.

Angelina Dulong

Angelina is the parent to a 6th and 8th grader. As the stewards of Trust Land funds, the community council is responsible for making good decisions about how to use those funds to best help our community school. She is a parent and an educator, so she brings an ability to see from multiple perspectives to the table. She would be honored to serve you!

Kate Gailey

Kate is the parent of an 8th grade student at Eastmont. She has been a volunteer over the past years.

Patrick Garner

Patrick is the parent of an 8th grade student at Eastmont.

Derek Grunander

Derek is the parent to a 6th-grader and applied to be on SCC to help others and see to the best interests of Eastmont Students.

Casie King

Casie is the parent of an incoming 6th grade student.

Steph Mulloy

Steph is a parent to an Eastmont 7th-grader. She applied to be on SCC because she wants to advocate for a successful learning environment. She's a big picture thinker and speaking up for the good of others.

Stephen Munson

Stephen is the parent to two Eastmont students, a 6th and an 8th grader. As a parent, he feels it is important to be an active participant in our children's education and be a voice in the education community. Having a positive opinion and holding a high regard for integrity is important to me and my representation as part of the School Community Council.

Kimberly Massi

Kim is the parent of an Eastmont 6th grader and applied to be on the SCC because she is interested in the work the SCC does, the process that decisions are made for the school.

Brodie M Reid

Brodie is the parent of an Eastmont 6th grader. As an educator she understands the importance of community involvement within the schools and looks forward to being a voice in her neighborhood school.

Tiffany Reid

Tiffany is the parent of an Eastmont 6th grader. As an educator she understands the importance of community involvement within the schools and looks forward to being a voice in her neighborhood school.

Eastmont has the availability for 5 new members for our School Community Council.
